

Grady and Mary Roberts Graduate Student Writing Award

The Pennsylvania College Personnel Association is pleased to announce the Grady and Mary Roberts Graduate Student Writing Award. Submissions are now being accepted for the 2008 award.

Encouragement and recognition of scholarly writing by graduate students on current issues in Student Affairs is the purpose of the award. Students in master's or doctoral programs are invited to participate.

The award is donated by Dr. Grady H. Roberts Jr., past president of PCPA, in memory of his parents. The winner will be announced at the Annual PCPA Conference in October. The amount of the award is $1000.

Eligibility

Students must be:

- Enrolled in a graduate degree program for one or more semesters during the 2007-2008 school year. Verification is required.
- A current member of PCPA. (Student membership is $10.)
- Planning to attend the annual PCPA fall conference.

Procedures

- The topic of the award is a major issue in Student Affairs.
- Submissions must not exceed ten (10) double-spaced typewritten pages including references, tables, and figures, and should conform to the current American Psychological Association Publication Manual.
- Submit (2) copies of the manuscript.
- Entries will be judged on originality, clarity, significance of the topic to the field of Student Affairs, technical competence, and forcefulness of argument.

All entries must be postmarked no later than June 1, 2008 to:
